Good Morning Mark,

It seems like businesses today forget that people are what business is all about. That's not true of Cash Flow Capital. I'm writing to let you know that your company is a great example of what a business can be.

Your customer service, attention to detail and prompt returning of phone calls made dealing with you an absolute pleasure.

It's not often that something that's supposed to be all about profit remembers what it's really all about. Your service was impeccable faultless and I look forward to dealing with you again.

Best Wishes

DR H
